ORDER

MARGARET M. GARNETT, United States District Judge:

By way of Defendant's motion to dismiss Plaintiff Riccitelli's complaint, see Dkt. No. 9-1, the Court has become aware of a pending action in the Eastern District of Wisconsin, Novin et al. v. Johnson Controls, Inc., Case No. 2:24-cv-00046-PP, filed on January 12, 2024, which purports to be a class action on behalf of all Johnson Controls employees subject to the incentive compensation plans for a range of products.

It is hereby ORDERED that counsel in the three above-captioned cases shall meet and confer regarding the effect of Novin on the above-captioned cases, and shall submit a joint letter, no later than March 4, 2025, of no more than five pages and providing the parties' views on whether the First-to-File rule applies, and, if so, whether the Court should (1) stay the above-captioned cases pending relevant events in Novin (such as, e.g., a ruling on motions to dismiss or motions for class certification); (2) transfer the above-captioned cases to the Eastern District of Wisconsin for potential consolidation with Novin; or (3) dismiss without prejudice the above-captioned cases as later-filed.

Dated: February 25, 2025
New York, New York

SO ORDERED.
